"Belle Brittan" has read the book—read what she says:
"I have before me a fresh volume, entitled 'Mormon Wives—
A Narrative of Facts"—by Menta Victoria Fuller, in which I have been enough interested to read it through at a sitting, and that, too, on the eve of a Fresidnish election. This story bears internal evidence of being based, at least, upon actual occurrences. It is vigorously and poetically told; and the effect can have all fail to excite in the public heart a feeling of irrepressible indignations egainst the fanatient fools who have sufficed themselves to be defined and evideded by the saining mescale who lead to a shroad for het victims. See finds them in a pleasant New Excland village two young zirls, the herefree of her story, who are led sattray, like virant hanbs from the fold—the one by a wicked husband, the other by a reckless beart; and both are wreched and stranded erpon the Golgotha of Mormondom The story is told with greet dramatic force, and contains the elements for a far more effective exhibition on the stage than Mrs.

HISTORY OF THE REIGN OF THE

EMPERON CHARLES THE FIFTH.
By WM. ROBERTSON, D D.

By WM. H. PRESCOTT. In 3 vols. Svo. With a fine Portrait eng aved from Tilian Uniform with "Ferdinard and Isabella," "Pnilip $1.," "Conquest of Mexico," &c.

The life of the Emperor in the Convent of Yuste was imperfectly known at the time when Robertson wrote. Mr. Prescott, in asthering materials from the royal archives of Smancas, for this History of the Reign of Philip II., obtained, at the same time, minute information concerting the last years of the royal recluse; and the work thus completed fills a chasmin Spanish history, between the reign of Ferdinand and Isabella and that of Philip II. There is, therefore, a propriety in offering it to the public, uniform in style and price with the preceding works of the historian of the Spanish monarchy.

Will be published December I.

THE NORTH and the SOUTH.—A Statistical View of the Condition of the FREE and SLAVE STATES.

"This little book contains a vast amount of information respecting the comparative condition of the Slaveholding and non-Shveholding States—as to territory, population, industry, wealth, education, intelligence, religion, moral edvancement and general progress. The work must have cost a great deal of labeling scream, and it certainly presents arguments in flavor of freedom on every page. It contains just the kind of information that should be more generally known in 30 sections of the country. We hope there will be a public demand for thousands of copies." Published by JOHN P.
